

FULL-CREW REPEALER SCORED IN SENATE

Upper House Passes Measure, Fate of Which Is Now Up to the Governor.

By a Staff Correspondent. HARRISBURG, Pa., May 11.—The repeal of the full crew law is now up to Governor Brumbaugh. The measure finally passed the Legislature last night when it passed the Senate by a vote of 23 to 14. The House passed the measure three weeks ago by a vote of 125 to 62.

The vote last night was: Ayes—Buckman, Clark, Croft, Dix, De Witt, Endsley, Gerberich, Geyer, Hiltner, Hindman, Homsher, Jinkins, Kurtz, Lynch, Martin, McKee, McMichael, Miller, Patton, Phipps, Salus, Sweeney, Sweeney, W. W. Smith, P. W. Snyder, Sones, Sprout, Stewart, Tompkins, Vane, Warner, Washburn.

Opposition to the bill were made by Brumbaugh, of Pittsburgh, and Hollander, of Harrisburg. Both called attention to the promises made during the campaign to oppose the repeal of the full crew law, and denounced the campaign waged by the railroads to push the repeal through.

Speeches against the bill were made by Brumbaugh, of Pittsburgh, and Hollander, of Harrisburg. Both called attention to the promises made during the campaign to oppose the repeal of the full crew law, and denounced the campaign waged by the railroads to push the repeal through.

COMMISSION WILL NOT HINDER COMPETITION

Public Service Body Renders Important Decision in Borough Gas Contest.

HARRISBURG, Pa., May 11.—"No company has the right to expect a commission to protect it against the competition of a product which can be supplied at less than one-half the cost of another product and answer the same purpose," is the important ruling made today by the State Public Service Commission in approving the franchise or ordinance between the People's Natural Gas Company, a big Western Pennsylvania concern, and the borough of Juniata, Blair County.

The Natural Gas Company entered into an agreement with the borough to supply natural gas until lack of supply necessitates the substitution of artificial gas, and the Altoona Gas Light and Fuel Company as the agent of the municipality on the ground that the franchise could not be granted by the borough.

GOLDEN EAGLES IN BRILLIANT SPECTACLE AT LEBANON

Grand Castle Makes Fine Display at Opening of Convention.

LEBANON, Pa., May 11.—The spectacular event of the annual convention of the Grand Castle, Knights of the Golden Eagle, in session here this week, was the parade this afternoon. Castles from various parts throughout eastern and central Pennsylvania sent large delegations with bands of music, and the military branch of the order was represented by the First, Second and Third Regiments, in response to a general order by Chief John B. Graybill, of Lancaster, as commander-in-chief. Following the parade, which followed the parade of this city, was chief marshal, competitive drills will be held in Liberty Square for $150 in cash prizes, offered by the local committee.

PICTURES HER IDEAL MAN

Head of Specified Height and Not Bald Headed, Speaker Says.

All hope is lost if a mere man is only a few inches in height. If this is the case he can never be any ideal husband. Those who doubt this assertion may ask Miss Myra Clymer about it. She explained that she constituted an ideal husband in the course of an address before the Washington Farmers' Club.

W. H. TAFT GUEST OF UNION LEAGUE TODAY

Famous Club Marks 50th Anniversary of Red Brick Home on Broad Street.

A reception and banquet, with former President William Howard Taft as the guest of honor, will be held in the Union League tonight, marking the 50th anniversary of residence in its present historic building.

The toast to which the former President will respond at the dinner will be "Our Country." Speaking on such a subject when a delicate international situation exists, the man who piloted this nation four years can scarcely fail to disclose his attitude on the recent act of aggression of Germany. It is believed Professor Taft's long and brilliant legal career has made him an authority on international law, and anything he may say on this phase of the question will be of interest to the entire country.

The reception to the former President will be held in the old cafe, and will start at 6:30 o'clock. The banquet will be held in the assembly hall at 7:30. The most representative gatherings in the history of the famous old organization is expected for the banquet. Representatives of the Union League from New York and Chicago will attend, and a majority of the local league membership will be present.

When the Union League moved into its Broad street home Broad street was paved with cobblestones, and railroad tracks ran on it. At that time the building was a shanty, and the Union League moved in. Efforts to have it torn down and replaced by a modern structure that would be in accord with the recent addition have been made of late years, but so far the sentiment attaching to the old structure has been strong enough to defeat these moves.

CHAPTER XIV—Continued.

She didn't like Treago—that was understood—but sympathy was very sweet to her just then, whatever its source, and she had no real objection to disparagement of her slanders, either. "Well, it wasn't my fight. And I didn't know how you'd take interference. You looked pretty well able to take care of yourself—in fact, you are. And then I don't reckon it's a good idea to go on to say this, but I might as well make a clean breast of it—I was just selfish enough to have a sneaking sort of hope, deep down, that maybe you'd find it so unpleasant you'd quit."

SOCIAL WORKERS TO HEAR CALL OF WORLD PEACE

Great Interest Centres in National Conference at Baltimore.

BALTIMORE, May 11.—By noon tomorrow nearly 100 delegates from all sections of the United States, including men and women who are interested in various phases of philanthropic work, will arrive in this city to attend the National Conference of Charities and Corrections, which will take place in the Academy of Music here. Hundreds of the visitors reached the city yesterday and today.

BRUMBAUGH REVENUE BILLS ARE DEFEATED IN HOUSE

Passage of Measures Would Have Netted State $1,000,000 Annually.

HARRISBURG, May 11.—The House last night defeated two of Governor Brumbaugh's revenue "raisers." They were the Lipschutz bill to increase the automobile tax 21 per cent, and the Hess bill to tax transfers of stocks and bonds. The Sprout bill requiring counties to pay the cost of primary elections was passed.

SUFFRAGE WATCHERS BILL Measure Replaced on Calendar of Senate—Will Probably Pass.

HARRISBURG, May 11.—The bill to permit two women watchers at each polling place at the election next November, when the woman suffrage amendment to the State Constitution will be voted upon, was replaced on the Senate calendar last night, and is expected to be passed finally this week.

CATLIN COMMISSION ECHO

Employees of Body May Not Be Paid for Services.

HARRISBURG, May 11.—Employees of the famous Catlin Commission, which was brought to Philadelphia during the Mayoralty campaign of 1911, have been prevented from being paid out of the funds appropriated by the general appropriation bill, which is scheduled to pass the House today.

KNIGHTS OF MALTA CONVENTE

23d Annual Convocation of State Begins at Pottsville.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., May 11.—The 23d annual convocation of the Knights of Malta of the State began today in the parish house of Trinity Episcopal Church, with Sir Charles Bineman, of No. 4, Reading, the newly elected grand commander, in the chair.
